A NOISY MEETING OF CREDITORS.

The creditors of J. A. & W. H. Sweeney held a meeting yesterd y in the Bennett Berlding. E. Abrahams, chairman of the Co-mittee of Creditors, presided at the opening of the meeting, but soon afterward resigned, and George L. Burr was elected chairman. The meeting was very noisy. With one or two exceptions it was composed of the depositors, and not by the stock creditors. J. A. Sweeney was present by invitation, and made a statement regarding the ability of his assignees to pay the claims against the firm. There were several interruptions from sngry creditors, one of whom, James H. Heatherton, began to read a list of questions. The first question was, "Is not your assignee your brothering-law ?"

"He is," replied Mr. Sweeney.

Before the excited reader could ask the second question Mr. Sweeney broke out with the exchanation: "You are working in the interest of an 85-cent creditor."

tion: "You are working in the interest of an so-cent ereditor."
"I am not, and you are a scoundrel and a thief," said Mr. H-atherton.
"I did not come here to be insulted, and I won't stand it," answered Mr. Sweeney, as he hurriedly left the room. He returned in a short time to "re-deem himself as a man of honor against the false charges made by some of the present creditors," whom he said he had carried over many hard places. He was very bitter against the lawyers, "who want to take all they can out of us and out of you." The assets, he said, would not pay more than forty cents on the dillar, and he said that all the stock creditors had agreed to a compromise except C. S. Andrews, of the Fifth Avenue Stage Line, who would not agree to any comoromise. A committee was ap-pointed to confer with Mr. Andrews and report to the creditors to-morrow afternoon.

CASTLE GARDEN NOT TO BE CLOSED.

CASTLE GARDEN NOT TO BE CLOSED.

It was evident at the opening of the regular monthly meeting of the Commissioners of Emiration yesserday, after an executive session of three hours discussing a report of the Figure Committee, that he Board had not assembled as mourners over the corpse of a dying Commission, for the first proceedings were in relation to continuing its "valuable labors for immigrants." Dr. H. B. Sands's declination of the place of consulting surgeon to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Dr. Carnochan was received. Commissioner Faintor Submitted the name of Dr. Daniel M. Stimson, sonin-lay of Dr. Willard Parker. Commissioner Ulrich wanted the appointment The appointment of L. F. Booch, as agent for the railroads at Castle Garden, was approved.

Mr. Stephenson offered a resolution that a committee of three should be appointed to arge the passag of the bit introduced in congress by Senator Miler to transier the Commission to Federal control. The bill provides for the appointment of three commissioners for this port and one each for Bosson, Charleston. Philadelphia, Baltum re, New-Orieans, San Francisco and Port Huron, with salaries. He contended that the people of New-York had borne the expense of immigration long enough. He was glad that Senator Jacobs had introduced a bill to cover the $110.000 remaining of the State appropriation into the Treasury, and "would not walk four feet to o struct the passage of the bill." He hoped that the State Legislature would take a firm stand against any further appropriation. Commissioner Ulrica said: "The Legislature has pre erved the attitual toward the commission of a poinceman to a pickpecket, and the effect of the bill will be to deprive 800 or 900 people who are on Ward's Island of the necessaries to sustain life."

Commissioners Forrest and Lynch alone voted against the resolution, and Messrs, Sephenson. Starr and Faintor were made the commistee. Mr. Sephenson offered a resolution that what was left of the $110,000 remaining of the State appropriation after the debts of the Commission were paid should be divided among the counties who have claims against the tate for the care of sick and destitute immigrants prior to 1880. These claims amount to $105,000. The resolution was laid on the table.

THIEVES INTERRUPTED IN THEIR WORK.

The new four-story dwelling house, at No. 83 East Fitty-sixth-st., has been occupied since its completion a tew weeks ago by Henry Greer and his family. It adjoins a low building, a story and a bell in height. While Mr. Greer and his family ere at dinner in the basement of their home on chemestay evening, there's got upon the roof of the low building and composed through the window of Mrs. Greer's bed-chamber on the second story. Miss Greer went to her mother's room at 6 p. in. and found the hall door locked. She went to the dising-room and asked her mother why the room up stairs was closed. Mrs. Greer said that she had left the door open.

Mr. Greer, together with his wife and daughter, went up stairs and found the door open. Inside the room articles from bureau drawers lay on the floor, and it was evident that thieves had been interrupted in their task of assorting the things for removal. They probably left the house by the front deer which Miss Greer was in the basement. They had carried away articles worth about $800. Mrs. Greer and, er daughter yesterday gave to the police the following list of the stolen articles: Two sealskin sa ques, two gold watches, one gold chain and locket, two gold bracelets, a gold thimble, two gold bangles, several gold pins and a pocket-book containing $20 and a few old coins. A reward of $200 was offered by Mr. Greer yesterday for he return of the two sealskin sacques, which were presents to his wife and daughter.

A CORPS OF LIFE-SAVING FIREMEN.

The Fire Commissioners yesterday sent a letter to the Chief Engineer of the St. Louis Fire Department, requesting that Christopher Hoeil, the instructor of the St. Louis Life-Saving Corps, be permitted to come to New-York and organize a similar corps among the firemen in this city. It is stipulated that Hoell shall be paid $150 per month while he is absent from St. Louis. At the request of Commissioner Purroy, the Board of Fire Commissioners recently decided to try the experiment of providing light scaling ladders, fire beits, life ropes, etc., to be used by a life-saving corps. A circular has been posted in all the company quarters, inviting firemen who consider themselves physically qualined to volutiee as members of the proposed corps. It is not the intention of the Commissioners to compel any fireman to risk his life in the dangerous use of the scaling ladders. These ladders are about twenty feet in length. Each is provided with a large hook at one end. In using one of these ladders the fireman faste... the hook in a wind w of a tall building and climbs up to the window. Then he raises the ladder until the hook catches in the window of the part story above him, and continues to building and climbs up to the window. Then he raises the ladder until the hook catches in the window of the next story above him, and continues to climb, repeating the same operation at each story. He carries up with him one end of a long rope and oib r appliances for saving life. It the ladder gets loose from an upper window nothing can save the man from a fall. Although the scaling ladders have ben used in St. Louis, Chicago and Cincinnati for several years, no life has been saved by them while several firemen have been injured in using them. Veteran firemen in this city believe that the proposed corps will not be of any practical use in the department.

IMPROVEMENTS ON AN OCEAN STEAMER. IMPROVEMENTS ON AN OCEAN STEAMER.
Imbedded in a field of ice at the White star Line pier yesterday was the steamer Republic of that company, which will start to-day on her first return trip to Europe since she was overhauled. The Republic is a sister ship to the Battic, but the repairs that she received while laid up at Liverpool for two months give her the appearance of a new v. seel.
The staterooms are larger than those upon ordinary ocean vessels, with an abundance of licht and v. ntilation. They are fitted up with wire mattrasses, adjustable seats and toilet appurtenances. The ladies boudoir, on the main deck, is the most handsomely turnished room on the vessel. The smokingroom is twice its former size, and lacks nothing that can be desired for comfort. The new promenade

The company prides itself upon the accommodations that it has forsteerege pa-sengers. Aft there are rooms for a unlies of various sizes. The apartment for single women stee age passengers is aft, while the steerage for single men is forward. Each steerage is separate from the other. The hospital accommodations are a leature, as is also the pantry for furnishing tea, coffee and soups to steerage passengers at any hour. Captain riving and R. J. Cortis, the agent of the line, received many congratulations from the large number of shippers and others who visited the vessel yesterday.

INSTRUCTIONS TO DEPUTY MARSHALS. INSTRUCTIONS TO DEPUTY MARSHALS.

United States Marshal Erhardt issued a new series of instructions yesterday to the officers connected with his office. They are required to be in attendance at the Marshal's office from 9:30 a.m. to till 5 p. ms., and are directed to refrain from the use of intoxicating highers while on duty. They are forbidden to permit prisoners, while in their custody, to enter any resort, especially where liquor is soid, or to have any liquor furnished to them. It a prisoner escapes from the custody of a deputy, complaint will be made to the District-Attorney and no tennency will be shown to the officers will not be permitted to receive directly or moi-rectly renumeration from those accused of crime, for any service, tancied or real, nor will they be permitted to recommend to those in their custody, or accused of offences against the laws of the United States, any attorney or coanseior." Under section 291 of the Penal Code, which provides that "no female child under the age of fourteen and no male child under the age of fourteen and no male child under the age of system shall live in or frequent disorderly houses with or without their parents, and that such a child must be taken before a magistrate to be disposed of according to law, which directs its commitment to a charitable or reformatory institution," Officer Wilson, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, obtained a warrant on Wednesday for the possession of the four children of Annie Wiseman, the proprietress of an alleged disorderly house at No. 102 West Thirty-third-st. Yesterday morning Mrs. Wiseman appeared in the Jefferson Market Court with two of the children, Jennie, age nine, and William, age four. Justice Patterson paroled her, with orders to be in court again this moriding, with all four of the children, the other two being Nellie, age eleven years, and Stephen, age fourteen months. Officer Wilson said that he had thoroughly investigated the case. The oldest girl, Nellie, had been seen in company with bad women, and often acted as guide and cashier in her mother's house. He stated further that after the children were disposed of he would prosecute Mrs. Wiseman herself, which could be done under section No. 289 of the code, which makes it a misdement for any person to permit a mmor to be placed in such a situation or to engage in such an occupation that its morals are likely to become deprayed. This is the first case of the kind that has come in the courts. President Gerry and Superintendent Jenkins, of the society, intend prosecuting every case of the kind that comes under their notice.

Matthew Curran, of Blissville, was arrested by Police Officer Grinham, on January 17, on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The arrest was made at the house of Patrick Smith, Curran's employer, two miles away from the Hunter's Point Police Station. Although it was a very cold night, the officer refused to allow his prisoner to put on his coat and waistcoat. Curran was discharged the next morning by a police justice. He became ill when he got home, and his condition grew worse each day. On We needay last, two friends called on Coroner Robinson, as Curran believed that he was dying from the effect of rejuries inflicted upon him by Grinham at the time of his arrest. In his ante-mortem statement he said that as he was preparing to go to bed about 10 o'clock on the night of the 17 h, he heard voices on the landing outside of his room. He had on his drawers and shirt at the time. He opened the door leading to the landing and found hirs. Smith, the wife of his employer, and Officer Grinham talking. He asked what was the matter, and the officer at once attacked him and said that he was going to olace him under arrest. He did not resist, and the officer followed him to his room. As soon as be had put on his trousers, Grinham commenced another attack upon him. He pushed him against the wall with such force that his left arm was badly brussed.

The exposure during Curran's walk to the station caused crystpelas to set in his wounded arm, and his life is considered to be in serious danger. His friends took him to Bellevue Hospital on Wednesder took him to Bellevue Hospital on Wednesder to him back to Bissville, where he is now at the I ouse of Mrs. Smith. TRYING THE SAPPERS AND MINERS CORPS.

The corps of Sappers and Miners in the Fire Department is composed of the assistant foremen of the forty-eight engine companies and nucleen hook and ladder companies, and is commanded by Assistant Chief Shay. It is divided into four companies. Although the corps has not been called upon to blow do an any buildings since it was organized, the members are required to drill by companies at stated intervals. President Gorman yesterday caused the signal, "555-2" to be sent over the fire-telegraph lines from the headquarters in Mercer-st. at 3 p. m., summoning the members of Company Bot the corps. Thirteen assistant foremen answered the call, and three others who belonged to the same company were reported as sick or off duty. The object of Mr. Gorman was to ascertain how quickly the members of a company could be called toge her. Assistant Foreman Short, of Engine Company No. 33, arrived from his station in Great Jones-st. in one minute and thirty seconds after the alarm was sounded. Three minutes is later Assistant Foreman McNamee came i from Marion-st. Others has ened to the headquarters at intervals of two or three minutes. Assistant Foreman Kelly, of Engine Company No. 5, went all the way from No. 340. East Fourteenth-st, in fifteen minutes and twenty-five seconds. The last man to arrive was Assistant Foreman Cusics, of Engine Company No. 28, who occupied twenty-four minutes and twenty seconds in going from No. 604 East Eleventh-st.

WORK OF THE MEDICAL MISSION.

WORK OF THE MEDICAL MISSION.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Managers of the New York Medical Mission, held a the rooms of the Young Men's hristian As conation on Tuesday evening of last week, Dr. Alfred C. Post was elected president; Drs. G. A. Sabine and W. H. Thompson, vice-presidents; Benjamin C. Wetmore, treasurer; Edward A. Jones, secretary; and Dr. George D. Dowkontt, medical superintendent. The other members of the Board of Managers are Cornelius Vanderbilt, James Stokes, Robert Hoe, Ir. Anthony M. Cochrane, William H. Hendrickson, Leighton Williams, and Drs. D. B. St. John Roosa, Alfred L. Loomiy, L. Bolton Bangs, Richard Holly, James R. Leaming, and Francis H. Markoe, Benjamin C. Wetmere is chairman of the Executive Committee. The treasurer's report for 1882 showed that $2.187.26 was received, and that the expenditur's exceeded this amount. Dr. Dowkoutt, the medical superintendent, reported that since the opening of the first dispensary, in June, 1881, 4,002 cases had been treated at the dispensaries and 2,491 visits paid to the homes of those suffering from diseases. Attendance had also been given in 8,612 minor cases at the dispensaries. The main dispensary was removed in May, 1882, to No. 81 Roosevett-st., and in August a branch was opened at the Church of the Reformation in Stanton-st. The managers hope to open other branches soon.

The object of the Mission is to combine religious instruction with the giving of free medical attendance to the poor. It is propo ed, if possible, to establish a medical mission institute on the model of one in Edinburgh, to train persons for service as medical missionaries in toreign countries. The Mission is sustained by private charity and contributions are desired to aid in extending its work. It is related that one young working man is giving $36 to the work, a tento of his yearly wages, and tha another is paying $1 a week out of his small earnings.

JOHN KENNY'S DEFENCE.

JOHN KENNY'S DEFENCE.

The evidence for the defence in the trial of John Kenny for murder in the first degree, was completed yesterday in Brooklyn. The prisoner was not put uoon the stand. His wife and their four small chil ren were in court. Samuel Kline, a butcher of Myrtle-ave, and Diffield-st., testified to hearing what sounded like a pistol shot on the night of the murder, but he could not tell the time. Nathan Fernandez, a pedler, statest that on the night after the murder he was in the closet where Kenny's pistol was afterward found; he looked where the pistol was afterward found, and it was not there. On his cross-examination the witness admitted that he had be in arrested several times, and had run a "sweat-board" at Coney I land and other places. S. G. Munn, of No. 391 Van Bruntst., was going home on the morning of the murder and saw two men in a scuille in Duffieli-s'. He could not say whether one of them was Kenny or not. Michael Kelny, a brother of the prisoner, testified that on the Sanday before the murder he took a four-barrelled pistol from his brother's little bay and put it in his own pocket and kept it until he given to his brother's counsel. The pistol was produced in court. The jury will visit the scene of the murder and McGrath's liquor store, in charge of a court officer, to-day, and testimony in rebutcal will be given by the prosecution.

MR. HAYES TO APOLOGIZE PUBLICLY.
Charles L. Burnham, of the Stock Exchange, vonied the Union Square Theatre in company with three ladies on Saturday evening. They secured seats in the parquet. Directly in front of them sat George Hayes, a manufacturer of skylights at No. 71 Eighth avenue. During the performance of "A Parisian Romance" Mr. Burnham and his companions carried on a conversation, which annoyed Mr. Hayes, who leaned towards them and said in a voice loud enough to be audible for some distance;
"If you wisa to tatk, you had better go outside."
Mr. Burnham got indigmant and said that Mr. Hayes was a "loafer." whereupon the latter slapped his face. Mr. Burnham told Justice Patterson of the occurrence on Tuesday.
A subpoens was sen to Mr. Hayes, who appeared in the Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday. Mr.
Haves and Mr. Burnham were taken into Justice Patterson's room and permitted to pour their troubles into his ear privately. After an interview of half an hour Mr. Hayes and Mr. Burnham came out, when it was learned that the former had consented to apologize in a public letter.

A JURY LOCKED UP.

Recorder Smyth yesterday gave to the jury the case against Charles H. Warren who was accused of murder in killing Patrick H. Dwyer. The testimony showed that Warren was in Dwyer's liquor store at No. 108 Bowery on the night of September 21, and had been drinking and playing pool. Dwyer came into the store about 10 o'clock very much under the influence of liquor and a quarrel enanced between the two men over a proposition to play a game of pool. Dwyer drew a pistol and fired it, the shot taking effect in the floor. The witnesses differed as to whether Dwyer retained the pistol in his jossession, those for the prosecution swearing that it was taken from him by the barkeeper. An effort was made to induce Warren to leave the room, but he drew a pistol and shot Dwyer in the back as he was running toward the tear of the store. Dwyer died on the day after the shouting. The Recorder in his charge to the jury said that the verdict should be guilty of murder in the first or second degree, or else not guilty. He defined each of the offences of which the prisoner might be found gailty If the prisoner formed a deliberate purpose to take the life of the deceased man and had no reason to fear for his own life or person, he was guilty of murder in the first degree. If there were intent to kill without sufficient time for premeditation, the offences would be murder in the second degree. The Recorder charged that it was no loo ger necessary to show, in setting up a plea of selt-defence, that the person accused had no opportunity to retire before his adversary when his attempt to escape would expose him to danger.

The jury retired at about 1 o'clock. They sent for instructions several times in the attempon, and at 6 o'clock were allowed to go to dinner. They asked for information as to the width of the counter over which the bartender most have reached if he took away Dwyer's pistol, as asserted by the prosecution. No evidence had been given on that point. A portion of the testimony was read over to the jury at haif-past 8, and

PROTECTION OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY. PROTECTION OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY.

The first public meeting of the New-York Association for the Protection of Americaa Industry, to be held on February 1, at Cooper Institute, promises to be interesting Peter Cooper will preside, and addresses will be made by William M. Evar s, Dexter A. Hawkins and Sm th M. Weed. In conversation with a IRBUVE reporter yesterday afternoon, one of the managers of the meeting said; "This is only the becoming of a movement which will shortly become a vast popular agitation. The labor unions that have recently been formed in the Congressional districts are part of the organization. Many of us belonged to the organization that agitated for Civil Service Reform. We attained an object there, and we will attain it here in the same way and by the same means. We desire the pratection of industry, the dev lopment of the shipping trade, and the protection of the lines laid down by the Tariff Commission for the first object; as regar is the shipping trade, we seek to deve op it, like France and Germany, by making it a Government undertaking; and the third of ject we have in view, the protection of the labor community, we hope to reach by making it legal for the great corporations to pension their workmen, independently of action on the part of the shareholders. At the meeting in Cooler Institute circulars embodying these views will be distributed."

THE FUNERAL OF MRS. LYNCH'S CHILD.

There was a very simple funeral service yesterday in the tenement-house at No. 118 Mulberry-st., where Mrs. Elen Lynch had nourned for four days beside the body of her son. A tew nelabbors and two or three relatives were present when the body was taken to Calvary Cemetery in the afternoon. Mrs. Lynch went to the cemetery and did not return to her desolate rooms until late in the cay. She seemed nearly crazed by her grief. Her husband, who had stolen away her only living child, did not go to the house again.

She says that she cannot live with her husbant because he is brutal and dangerous. Her little son is sickly and needs her care, and she fears that while he is in the custody of his father he may become ill from map oper treatment. She is willing to support herself and child, if her husband will not molest her.

MRS. SALLY STORY WANTS TO GO HOME. MRS. SALLY STORY WANTS TO GO HOME.

The concluding arguments in the trial of Mrs.
Sally Story, of Little Falls, for poisoning Mrs.
Elizabeth Feest in last Sentember, were made yesterday in the Court of Over and Terminer, at Palerson, N. J. Prosecutor Eugene S evenson summed up for the State. Judge Dixon charged the jury at great length, instructing them that if they convicted the prisoner of murder it must be of murder in the first degree. By the law murder by poison is of the first degree. If they found that Mrs. Story gave poison to Mrs. Feest, thinking that it was quantie, but not using reasonable caution, they must find the prisoner guilty of manishaughter. If ne ther intentional poisoning nor criminal negligence was established in their minds by the evia nee, he verdet must be one of acquittal. The jury retired about 12:30 p. m. At 6 p. m. the Judge sent for the verdet must be one of acquitten. The prisoner and the jury. Sally Story included in a tirade of abuse against her counsel, Mr. Prail, and sald that she wanted to go home. The jury reported that they had not agreed, and that there was no chance of their doing so. The Court refused to discharge them and ordered them into custody.
